NOTICE.—NEW STORY BY THE POPULAR AUTHOR OF "PRETTY MISS BELLEW."

MAID ELLICE. By Theo. Gift,
Author of "Pretty Miss Bellew." "True to Her Trust," &c.
3 vols. 31s. 6d.

THE LITTLE LOO: a Tale of the South Sea. By SYDNEY MOSTYN, Author of the "Surgeon's Secret," &c. 3 vols. 31s. 6d.

The Scotsman says: "Mr. Mostyn's story is full of thrilling interest from the first page to the last. It is capably written, with an obviously intimate knowledge of the minutiae of the merchant service, and of seamen's habits and methods of life. Some of the descriptive passages—for instance, the account of the storm by which the vessel was assailed shortly before the mutiny—are full of vigour and realism. . . . Altogether, this story of the sea is one of the best books of its kind that has appeared of late years."

SALTHURST. By Mrs. Arthur

LEWIS, Author of "The Master of Riverswood." 3 vols. price 31s. 6d.

"Exhibits, in respect of literary quality, dramatic power, and truth and vigour in the conception and creation of character, a distinct advance on her former work, 'The Master of Riverswood,' which was itself a powerful and well-written tale. . . . There is a freshness and a sense of living emotion pervading it all through. . . . Some of the minor personages, as well as the principal characters, are very happily drawn, with a kind of tender simplicity which gives realistic effects such as no amount of elaboration could attain."—Scotsman.

COUSIN DEBORAH'S WHIM. By

MARY E. SHIPLEY, Author of "Gabrielle Vaughan," &c. 3 vols. 31s. 6d.

The Athenaeum says:—"A good deal can be said in favour of 'Cousin Deborah's Whim.' The tone is fairly wholesome, the style good, and the fiction well thought out. . . . The authoress has devoted much thought to the delineation of her heroine's disposition. The attempt alone is sufficient to earn a good word from all who see in character-drawing the highest type of fiction; and Miss Shipley has done something more than attempt to succeed."

The Scotsman says:—"There is a great deal of thought and careful literary workmanship in 'Cousin Deborah's Whim.' . . . It is a patient, elaborate, and, on the whole, a truthful study of two very opposite types of character, and of the way in which each is affected by mutual contact and external circumstances. . . . The story is pleasantly written, and not only the two principal figures, but many of the minor personages, are depicted with much insight and realism."

THRO' the SHADOW: a Novel.

2 vols. 21s.

ELIOT the YOUNGER: a Fiction in

Freehand. By BERNARD BARKER. 3 vols. 31s. 6d.
[Now ready.]

EACH COMPLETE IN ONE VOLUME.

MILES: a Town Story. By the Author of "Fan." Crown 8vo, 3s. 6d.

SOPHIA: a Novel. By Jane Ashton.

Crown 8vo, 7s. 6d.

IN the SPRING of MY LIFE: a

Love Story. By the Princess OLGA CANTACUZÈNE. (From the French.) Crown 8vo, 7s. 6d.

IN TROPIC SEAS: a Tale of the Spanish Main. By W. WESTALL. Crown 8vo, 7s. 6d.

A SUSSEX IDYL. By Clementina

BLACK. Crown 8vo, 7s. 6d.

The Examiner says:—"A Sussex Idyl" is thoroughly deserving of its name—no mean praise, as it seems to us. For what is more difficult in these feverish modern times than to produce a true Idyl—an Idyl of to-day, not thrown back into the quiet centuries that lie behind us, but true and living, even as the lanes and meadows and bird-haunted coverts are still true and living? . . . A Sussex Idyl is such a charming story that we should indeed be ungrateful did we not look forward with pleasure to more work from the same hand."

REGENT ROSALIND. By the Author of "Workaday Briars," &c. Crown 8vo, 7s. 6d.

Miss YONGE, in "Womankind," says:—"Regent Rosalind" shows much better than any discourse how a sensible and motherly girl can line again the shattered nest of her home."

The Scotsman says:—"The story is a pleasant and readable one, containing some truthful pictures of life in a great English provincial town, and several thoughtful and finished studies of character. . . . The interest of the tale, though not enthralling for readers who are accustomed to the highly-spiced sensational fiction of the day, is steadily maintained to the close, and is always healthy and natural."

The Spectator says:—"It is to be hoped that there exist, even now, a certain number of young persons whose taste is sufficiently unperverted to permit them to read this simple story—written in unusually good English, and which deals with nothing out of the way of the homely life of thousands of English middle-class homes—with appreciation and interest. . . . The author of 'Regent Rosalind' has drawn a bright, honest, lovable, pleasant girl's portrait for us, and the accessories are all natural and well developed. . . . We have read 'Regent Rosalind' with a sense of restful pleasure."

TEN TIMES PAID: a Story of the SOUTH. By BRUTON BLOSSE. Crown 8vo, 7s. 6d.

SKETCHES in CORNWALL. By M.

F. BRAGGE. In Wrapper, price 1s. [Now ready.]

FINANCIAL OPINION:

A THURSDAY

ILLUSTRATED FINANCIAL, POLITICAL, LITERARY, AND FAMILY PAPER.

FINANCIAL OPINION, in addition to first-class original matter on all subjects of immediate interest, is devoted to the collection, analysis, and presentation of the most exhaustive information on Financial Matters, and gives the cream of the rival opinions contained in the leading Journals and City Articles, both British, Colonial, and Foreign. Men of business are rarely able to analyse carefully all the rival opinions on any particular security day by day and week by week, smothered as they are in the sea of general materials throughout all the papers. FINANCIAL OPINION, devoted among other purposes to this, undertakes to provide the man of business and the investor with such a digest and comparison, stripped of all fortuitous and irrelevant matter, and presented in a form intelligible to every man of common sense. The leading securities of the day are from time to time illustrated by charts of the fluctuations in price, in some cases for a series of years, and regularly for a series of two or three weeks.

Besides the Diagrams of Price Fluctuations, various Maps of the Seat of War are frequently given.

STRENGTH FOR THE WEAK.

THE latest addition to Therapeutics is the discovery of a NEW COMPOUND SALT, having two distinct bases. This valuable aid to medicine, if dissolved in hot water, forms a most invigorating lotion, quickly curing Weaknesses, arising from whatever cause, and drawing out pains and aches, and is known as

LIEBIG'S SILVER SALT.

The feeble and those in delicate health will find this Salt highly invigorating and exhilarating, which all who suffer from Colds and Weaknesses will at once appreciate, as it fortifies any weak part bathed with it, thereby preventing and keeping off Colds, by giving a warm glow of health, and should always be at hand for use in changeable weather, to rub in any part as a protection.

LIEBIG'S PEARLS OF STRENGTH

are perfectly tasteless, being prepared in the form of Pearls, which they resemble in appearance. This elegant medicine is quite different to anything ever brought before the public, containing, in a cheap and pleasant form, a most elaborate preparation, adapted to all ages and constitutions, for

ENRICHING THE BLOOD, and for the permanent cure of

General Weakness, Shortness of Breath, Impoverished Blood, Noises in the Head and Ears, Impaired Sight and Memory, Indigestion, Incapacity for Study or Business, Dizziness, Rheumatism and Pains and Aches, and most other symptoms of failing health.

TESTIMONIAL from Sir CHARLES LOCOCK,
Physician to the Queen:—

"I have seen the effects of Liebig's Pearls of Strength, and regard them favourably as a general family medicine, pleasant to take, and beneficial in their action. I have also subjected the Silver Salt to some very severe tests, and find that the hot solution draws out pains and aches in a few minutes, and is without doubt the most powerful invigorator known, and these two remedies appear to me to fully bear out all that is claimed for them.

"CHARLES LOCOCK, M.D."

In cases of physical, functional, or organic weakness, the Silver Salt will soon effect a cure, if applied as a lotion to the place, causing the blood to flow there, and the part then becomes strong; and these two remedies comprise the whole of the LIEBIG SYSTEM OF MEDICINE, of supplying the blood with its ferruginous, phosphatic, and saline elements, for curing languor, exhaustion, and early decay, by rendering the blood sufficiently rich to nourish the body, expel all impurities, infuse new life, and build up a stronger constitution, and has so far proved a success that it is rapidly superseding the old system.

These PEARLS are sold in boxes at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., 11s., 22s., and 33s., and the SILVER SALT is the same price. There is a considerable saving in buying the larger quantities, and they can be forwarded to any part, carriage free, with printed directions for use.

The TROUBADOURS: a History of Provençal Life and Literature. By FRANCIS HUEFFER.

"Mr. Hueffer's work is so rich in biographical detail and in anecdote, as well as in literary illustration, that a reviewer can scarcely touch on all that he would like to notice. . . . The Troubadours' may certainly be read by anyone who can look at literature not supplied by the novelists. The book is full of various information, and not only gives fresh knowledge, but destroys a few delusions." Saturday Review.

The happy blending of the two elements, the purely local and the purely personal, give a charm and flavour of its own to Dr. Doran's work."—Observer.

"One of the happiest books of the kind it has been our pleasure to review. Mr. Davenport Adams has certainly given the public a selection which is perfectly complete. There is not a living poet of the present day who is unrepresented, and the specimens of each particular style shown are admirably chosen. . . . Such a book deserves to find a place in every home; and we can promise those persons who install it on their 'friendly shelf,' that they will find its pages a constant source of pleasure—its green covers will be as welcome to the eye as the early green of spring."—Lloyd's Weekly News.

ENLARGEMENT OF "NATURE."

NATURE:

A WEEKLY

ILLUSTRATED JOURNAL OF SCIENCE.

FROM May 2, the commencement of a new volume, NATURE will be enlarged and the price raised to 6d.

This step has been necessitated by the success which has been achieved during the period, upwards of eight years, which has elapsed since the journal was first started, a success due to the generous response which has been made to the endeavours to obtain the earliest information on all affairs touching scientific progress from all parts of the world.

The quantity of important matter now received during each week from both hemispheres so largely exceeds the space at present at the Editor's disposal, that as an inevitable result the publication of valuable new results and interesting information is often delayed for a considerable time.

This large increase is mainly due to the formation of new scientific societies and associations both in our own and other countries, and to the valuable aid afforded us by our subscribers and readers, some of them in the more remote and least known spots on the earth's surface.

The following list of places from which we occasionally receive correspondence will give an idea of the manner in which NATURE now circulates in regions far outside the range of the ordinary newspapers:—Itajahy (South Brazil), Samoa, Borneo, Graaf Reinet (South Africa), New Guinea, Johore, Champion Bay (Gulf of Siam), Nukus (Amu Delta), Dehra Doon (North-West Provinces), Philippine Islands, Willunga (South Australia), Puerto Plata (Sto. Domingo), Saigon (Cochin China), Hailer Grace (Newfoundland), Manado (Celebes), Pietermaritzburg (Natal), Kaffraria, Ohin-tahi (New Zealand), Jask (Persian Gulf). We might have largely increased this list had we given the names of the many other places in India where we have either regular or occasional correspondents, besides places in China, Japan, remote parts of America, Australia, and New Zealand.

Nor must we omit to state that from the United States in which NATURE circulates more widely than any other English journal, we receive early proofs of many of the valuable contributions to scientific theory, exploration, and practice, the rapidly increasing number of which is one of the most remarkable indications of scientific progress to be noted in our time.

We have, it need scarcely be said, regular Correspondents in all the principal countries of Europe, and as our pages testify, our reviewers and other contributors are not confined to English men of science. We are gratified to state that we are able, when we deem it advisable, to be the medium of communication of the opinions of the most eminent men of science in Europe and America on any important subject attracting general attention. Any one looking over the seventeen volumes of NATURE will find there as contributors, at one time or other, the most prominent names of our time.

That NATURE has thus been able to attract to her pages as contributors or correspondents, not only the leading scientific men of all countries, but many others who quietly cultivate science in their leisure hours in the most remote parts of the world, and that a love for science is spreading more and more appear to the proprietors to indicate that in its new form NATURE will prove more attractive and useful, because fuller and more varied, than ever.
